2018 Western National Roundup

Western National Roundup, a tradition for 98 years, was originally designed to recognize state and national winners. As the 4-H program has changed to meet the needs of youth today so has Western National Roundup. This year's event, like the ones that preceded it, will not only recognize excellence but also provide an outstanding, educational opportunity for 4-H youth.

The 4-H organization differs in each state. As you make new friends, we hope that you will explore the variety of ways in which states conduct their 4-H programs. You are sure to go home with new ideas on how you can improve your state's program. You will find that each state selects Western National Roundup delegates differently. The Planning Committee hopes that you will use your time in Denver making new friends and gathering new ideas.

Western National Roundup is an active conference with more than 1,200 attendees participating in 19 national level contests, numerous workshops, activities, meals, and travel between several locations. The conference headquarters – the Denver Renaissance Hotel – is a large facility with 12 floors, more than 400 rooms, dozens of conference spaces, banquet halls and catering capable of seating and feeding hundreds at once. As you can imagine, it takes our staff and volunteers months of planning to make this event run smoothly, and it also takes participants knowing the rules & expectations of attendees, being in the right place at the right time, and so on. This handbook is designed to help define the expectations of attendees.

PREPARING FOR YOUR ROUNDUP EXPERIENCE

Conference Check-In will be held at conference headquarters at the Renaissance Hotel:

Wednesday Arrivals: Check-In between 3:00p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday

Thursday Arrivals: Check-In between 9:00a.m. and 4:00p.m. on Thursday.

Late Check-In will be held as needed in the same area. Upon arrival please send one adult to check in your state's entire delegation.

Side note: Meats ID participants who are staying around the Greeley area: you do not need to come to the Renaissance to check-in unless you are planning to attend the banquet on Friday night—if you do, you'll get your check-in bag on Friday before the banquet. If you have not checked in by Saturday morning, we will have your check-in bags at your contest on Saturday.

NAMETAGS

Your chaperones will give you a Roundup nametag upon arrival. It is used to identify you as a member of our group. YOU MUST WEAR IT AT ALL TIMES to be admitted to all Roundup events and workshops. If you don't have it with you, you will be asked to go back to your room to get it. Nametags should not be worn offsite unless it is a Roundup event. Lost nametags and holders will be replaced for $5. Nametags not only help us to know who you are, but also keep out those who don't belong. We ask that you have a positive, cooperative attitude about wearing it. If you collect pins and stickers, please don't put them on the nametag covering your name.

Helpful tips to assist you in checking into The Renaissance Denver Hotel:

11. For information about the area please visit <http://www.stapletondenver.com/>.

We will be looking to block all teams/groups/schools close together prior to arrival, when you arrive we ask that you be patient in checking in as we would prefer to keep you in these rooms and not move your room as we have picked the best possible guestroom option (fair to everyone) taking all requests into consideration while also keeping you close together. Because of the size of this event, the amount of rooms with 2 Queen's needed vs how many we have, and connecting room needs, we cannot guarantee any of these requests in advance. We are not able to confirm any individual schools' request more important than another's. Please note that we are doing everything we can to divide these rooms equally among each school. Also, please keep in mind that most our King rooms also have a pull-out couch in them. Your confirmation numbers are attached.

If we currently do not have your method of payment on file however we do have tax exemption paperwork (We cannot confirm exemption without the Method of Payment). Having this information in advance will dramatically increase the speed of your check in, please find these documents attached. Once we have this information, we will turn off all opportunity for incidentals charged to the rooms unless we receive a credit card for these charges. Please also note that your tax exemption cannot be adjusted off until the end of your stay. Please stop by our front desk to receive a final copy of your invoice with the tax adjustment on the day of departure.

DENVER WEATHER

The weather in Denver in January is generally cold. It could be as warm as the mid 70's or as chilly as the 30's or below. Bring clothes that you can easily layer. Be sure to pack a winter jacket. If it snows, you will need something to keep you warm going to and from the bus, on short trips outside the hotel, and some community service activities.

LUGGAGE AND PACKING

Be sure every piece of luggage has your name and state on it in two places. It must be accurate and easy to read. Pack as economically as possible. Bring clothes that mix and match well. Your state will tell you if there is a limit to the number of bags that you can bring. Never leave your suitcase unattended. Bags have a way of walking away when not attended. Keep your valuables with you ALWAYS; do not pack them in your suitcase. PACK ONLY WHAT YOU CAN CARRY OR ROLL!

Check with your airline for luggage fee, size, and weight limitations for your luggage. If your luggage is oversized, you will have an additional charge for checking it.

SPENDING MONEY

SAFETY PRECAUTION HELPFUL HINTS:

The Western National Roundup staff goes to extraordinary means to ensure adequate plans are made for the safety of delegates.

AIRPORT SECURITY

Many participants will be flying into Denver. Airport check-in is changing daily. Pack everything possible into the luggage that you will check at the airport. Bags that you attempt to carry on will be scrutinized thoroughly. Items that have sharp points will be confiscated by airport security. This includes things as small as tweezers, nail clippers, and pocket knives. Do not embarrass yourself or your group by attempting to bring those with you through airport security. Any metal objects that you wear will slow the process down. You may want to put items such as big metal belt buckles in the suitcase that you check. Your positive, helpful attitude will make a tremendous impression on those you encounter and will make the job of security officers easier.

PHOTO IDENTIFICATIONS

Be sure to keep your photo identification in a secure place as it is necessary for flight identification.

SECURING OF LUGGAGE

Do not allow strangers to handle your luggage. Remember - pack only what you can carry. Please go to tsa.gov to see the latest airport regulations for luggage and carry-on items.

HOTEL SAFETY

Doors to sleeping rooms must be locked AT ALL TIMES. Doors that are propped make an easy target for thieves and other criminals. Even for short trips to adjoining rooms or to the closest ice machine, participants must lock doors securely. Valuables must never be left in open view in your room. Each room has a safe for use. The hotel does have limited safety deposit boxes that can be secured at the front desk. Use the peep hole in the door to see who is there before opening it.

STREET SAFETY

As in any big city, you will encounter a number of panhandlers. They can be aggressive in asking you for money. Be courteous but it is suggested that you politely turn down their requests. Do not allow strangers to handle your luggage. Pack only what you can carry.

Participants are only allowed to leave the hotel in groups of four or more. Adult chaperones must be made aware of when you leave, where you are going, and when you plan to return. If you have a cell phone, give the adult chaperone your number or that of a member of your group.

The following guidelines have been issued by the Center for Disease Control.

HEALTH CONSIDERATIONS

Individuals who currently have or have had the flu or flu-like symptoms in the 7 days prior to the event should not attend the Western National Roundup unless they have been fever-free (under 100°F) for over 24 hours. To avoid potential contamination, delegates and chaperones are encouraged to wash their hands and/or use hand sanitizers on a regular basis. Coughs and sneezes should be directed into a tissue, handkerchief, or the crook of your arm.

EMERGENCIES

Emergencies come in a variety of severities with specific responses for each.

MINOR EMERGENCIES

1. Locate your state coordinator immediately.
2. Ask for their help in coming up with the best solution.

MAJOR EMERGENCIES

1. Use the closest phone to call for help.
2. In the hotel dial 65 or 0, outside the hotel dial 911.
3. Call your state coordinator or ask someone to call for you.
4. Call Roundup Headquarters located in Clear Creek Room at the hotel.

MAJOR CATASTROPHES

In case of a major catastrophe, all Roundup participants will meet at a designated gathering point. These gathering points are specified in the Western National Roundup Program. Lead person for that area will take roll to ensure that the entire group is present. The group will then be escorted to a designated safe location. Parents will be briefed by Jean Glowacki the Colorado 4-H Program Director.

APPROPRIATE CONDUCT and HELPFUL HINTS:

Participants must be considerate of other guests in the hotel during Roundup. Noise in the halls and rooms must be kept at a minimum. Please limit talking to quiet conversational levels. Groups that make too much noise will be asked to locate another hotel and move to it. Running in the halls and standing on both internal and external balconies are prohibited. Girls and guys may not visit in lodging rooms. Visiting must be done in lobbies and other common gathering areas. Remember that all participants have signed a code of conduct that must be followed. Participants cannot go out on hotel balconies/ overhangs. Do not toss anything off the balconies inside or outside the hotel. Texting and cell phones should not be used during any workshop or main session.

HOTEL ROOM HINTS

- Housekeeping cannot move your personal items off the bed or floor. If items are thrown around the room, it will not be cleaned.
- Leave dirty towels in the bathtub or on the bathroom floor.
- The bottled water found in your hotel room is not complimentary. Do not use it unless you expect to pay for it. The same applies for in-room movies.
- Do NOT use the fire sprinklers for hanging items.

TIPPING

Tipping is traditional when interacting with those who help make your travel experience more enjoyable. It is your way of saying “thank you” for the service provided. You should tip waiters, bell staff, doormen if they summon a taxi for you, and your taxi/limo driver. Suggested amounts are as follows:

Waiters/Waitresses:	18% to 20% of the total bill
